

Resident Manor Matters September 2007

To start September we had a Labor Day picnic. Gala Days was also a highlight for residents. They enjoyed the fireworks very much & the princess visit was a highlight, and they could watch the parade. It is so important to have community events held here at the Manor so residents can be a part of it all. We had a tribute to Grand parents. Susan Ueffing provided music with activity doing a back to school fashion show. We are happy to have the Sunshine Group back again this fall. They will be coming in the afternoon rather than evenings. We had old school readers loaned to us by Doug Hale that the residents enjoyed seeing & reminiscing about.

In celebration of Continuing Care Month, Grand View Manor has 2 programs. The first program was where we took the residents on a tour visiting all the units, departments & apartment areas. Some residents do not get off their units much, so to see all these other units & areas was interesting for them. The other special time was our dance & dinner held at the Wandlyn Inn, Coldbrook. Residents really enjoyed the evening. There were residents from 4 other homes were there (Evergreen, New Vision, Tibbett's & Grace Haven)

Our Chinese (Ticket) Auction is set for Oct. 13. Tickets are 25/$1.00 Time is 11am – 1pm., draw at 1:15, must be present for draw. Canteen will be available. Proceeds go for the resident activities.

The junior volunteer program will be underway the first part of October. This is for youth 14 & up who have submitted an application form.

Liz Johnson, our Chaplin is still looking for musical entertainment for Sunday afternoon church service. If anyone might be able to help, call Liz Johnson or Lynn Hardy at Grand View Manor 538-3118.
